Conrad Wilde Gallery is pleased to present our season-opening exhibition, Parts of the Whole featuring five artists working in collage and assemblage. The exhibition opens in our Main Gallery with a reception Saturday, October 6th from 6-9 pm in conjunction with the Central Tucson Gallery Association's gallery walk- The Big Picture. The show runs through Saturday, October 27th. CWG has resumed regular gallery hours from Tuesday through Saturday from 11:00 am until 6:00 pm.

It has often been said that "Life is in the details". Parts of the Whole is a visual celebration of the interconnectedness of that which seems fragmentary, unworthy of notice, lost or elusive. Tucson favorites David Adix, Catherine Nash, and Margaret Suchland will be featured along with New York artists Greg Stephens and Jeff Sunheim. Works on display will be gorgeously crafted from found-objects, found-images and ephemera, hand-made paper, elements from nature, wax, and other materials.

Our Salon Gallery will exhibit a selection of works from represented gallery artists. Conrad Wilde Gallery features contemporary painting, sculpture and works on paper from emerging and established artists based locally and nationally. Gallery hours are Tuesday through Saturday from 11:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. and by appointment by calling 520-622-8997. Visit www.conradwildegallery.com for more info.
